11. M: May I have the menu, please?

W: Sure, here you are.

Q: Where is the man?

12. M: Kitty, would you like a cup of tea?

W: No, thanks. If I drink coffee that late, I won't be able to sleep.

M: OK. I see. Then how about some warm milk?

W: That would be much better for me. It can help me sleep well.

Q: Why doesn't Kitty want a cup of coffee?

13. B: How do you feel after you took the medicine?

G: I couldn't be better! My nose isn't running, my cough stops, and I don't have a sore throat.

B: Sounds great But you still have to take a rest and drink much water.

Q: What happened to the girl before she felt better?

14. M: Mary, I failed the math quiz this morning. I felt down because I spent about three hours studying it.

W: I'm sorry to hear that, Paul. However, don't feel sad. Jason and Jeff are good at numbers, and they teach math very well. You can ask them for help.

M: It's a good idea.

Q: Who can teach Paul math?

15. W : If you are free next weekend, do you want to take a trip to Green Island with me?

M: Why not? I like snorkeling and soaking myself in the hot spring.

W: We can also watch the moon at night at the beach.

Q: What are they going to do next weekend on Green Island?
