Michael's diary,

It was sunny today. When I was on my way home, I saw a beautiful house next to the lake. Luckily, I met the owner of the house. What surprised me was that he is my uncle! He invited me to his house. I saw three big dolls on the sofa in the living room. I guessed my uncle bought them for his daughter — Gina. The living room is big and modern. My uncle said he always plays with his daughter in the living room. In the evening, I stayed at my uncle's house and had dinner with them. It was delicious. I had a hamburger, two pieces of pizza, and three glasses of coke. Before I left my uncle's house, he said I could come anytime if I want to. What a great afternoon I had at my uncle's house!

Mona: Honey, can you go to the photo shop and print out two more sets of these photos for my parents?

Chad: But it looks like raining now! Why don't you just call Easy-Snap? It takes them only five minutes to get here from Gemmy Road.

Mona: But that'll be very expensive!!

Chad: OK, OK. Then I'll go to the photo shop next to the café. I heard it's having a sale.

Mona: You mean Nice-Shoot? Too late. Yesterday was the last day. There's a new shop called Plus-Pic across from the station. I've checked the photo shops in town. It costs the least to print out two sets of photos at Plus-Pic.

Chad: But it's the farthest from us! How about Quick-Foto? It's a lot nearer, and not that expensive!

Mona: It's closed today. Come on! You don't have anything important to do this afternoon, do you?

Chad: I... all right. You win.
