Grandpa's Mangoes

My grandpa lives in Tainan, so we visit him every month. This summer vacation, my parents, my sister, and I visited him and stayed for one week.

We arrived at Grandpa's house at noon. He greeted us at the gate and then we had lunch together in the living room. Grandpa made many dishes for us and also bought mangoes, my favorite fruit. We talked and laughed with Grandpa and enjoyed his cooking. Grandpa was very happy, and we had a wonderful afternoon together.

In the following days, we visited some old temples. Grandpa told us many interesting stories about the town. On the last day, we had to say goodbye. Grandpa put a basket of mangoes in our car. The sweet smell of the mangoes traveled with us all the way home. Grandpa loves us, and we love him too.

This summer, Alice and her family went to France to watch the opening ceremony of the 2024 Olympics in Paris! Even though it rained a little, there were some really cool parts.

The athletes from all over the world came to the ceremony in boats on the Seine River. This is called the Parade of Nations. The ceremony showed off some famous places in Paris, like the Notre-Dame Cathedral and the Louvre Museum. One of the best parts was when a famous singer named Céline Dion sang a song called "L'Hymne à l'amour" near the Eiffel Tower. This was her first show since she got sick in 2022. Another famous singer, Lady Gaga, was also there!

The ceremony started with a famous French soccer player named Zinedine Zidane carrying the Olympic torch. He gave the torch to some children, and they carried it through the city. It was really exciting! There was also a funny moment when someone wearing a big hood ran through Paris.

Alice and her family loved every part of the ceremony. They were so happy to be there for this special event!
